CUB is quite excited to announce there are Retreat Scholarships available for the upcoming October 2017 CUB Retreat. To be eligible for consideration, please complete the scholarship application. We welcome applications from birthparents, adoptees, adoption professionals, and all other adoption constellation members*, who would not otherwise have the means to attend our annual retreat.

SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

- There should be a serious need for funding in order to attend (unemployed, receiving government assistance, low-income salary, etc.)
- A scholarship recipient would be required to volunteer some of his/her time at the 2017 retreat; or work on a project, approved by the Board. This would take place prior to the retreat or soon in the year beginning after the retreat.
- Anyone who has received a scholarship previously, or receives one in 2017, would not be eligible for a scholarship in the years to come.

Two Types of Recipients:

LOCAL: TWO (2) local residents in California area can receive two different scholarships. One includes Full Retreat Admission and a one-year CUB membership. The other scholarship option includes Full Retreat Admission, a one-year CUB membership, and a sum to be applied to transportation.

NATIONAL: TWO (2) recipients whose attendance would include long-distance travel. The scholarship will include Full Retreat Admission, $275 toward travel and lodging. The scholarship recipient is expected to share lodging with one or more attendees.

Full Retreat Admission includes attendance from Friday morning to Sunday morning. Dinner will be provided on Friday and Saturday evening. Breakfast will be provided Sunday morning.
